GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS STRICKLAND TO BUILDING CODE COUNCIL

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Paula Strickland of Greensboro to the North Carolina Building Code Council.

Strickland is the president and owner of Williams Plumbing and Heating. She is a member of the North Carolina Association of Plumbing, Heating, Cooling Contractors, the National Association of Plumbing, Heating, Cooling Contractors, Nexstar, Inc., and Air Conditioning Contractors of America. Strickland attended Ben L. Smith High School.

The council prepares and adopts criteria in accordance with the N.C. Building Code, including classifications of buildings and structures, building restrictions, precautions taken during construction and permissible materials. The board has 17 members, each serving a six-year term. The governor appoints all members.
